Microfilms et microfiches d'histoire américaine / Sources primaires d'histoire
américaine du centre de ressources de l'Institut Charles V

Microfilms and microfiches in American history / American history primary sources at the Resource center at the Institut Charles V

The strength of the collections lies in the Colonial period and most particularly, in the Early Republican period. Most of the microfilms and microfiches were purchased by Prof. Elise Marienstras. Black history documents were purchased by Prof. Geneviève Fabre, some with the help of the Florence Gould Foundation. Microfilm readers as well as a readex microprint reader are available at the Resource center.

The list is also available on <http://projetalbion.free.fr/civi.html>

(SR) refers to purchases made from Scholarly Resources Inc. Other editors are mentioned. AAS. RMC = The American Antiquarian Society. Readex Microprint Corp. Other sites of interest for students of the early Republic are listed at the end.
